

SOCIAL SCENE

US design firm comes up with cabin design

Thai Airways International Plc recently chose the US-based Priestman Goode, a leading global multidisciplinary design consultancy specialising in aviation, transport, environment and product design, to present the final conceptual and perspective of the cabin interior design to the airline's board and management.